MILANO - SALONI E FUORI

The design week is over, Salo del Mobile too. It was fun in Milan last week and miles and miles of walking behind me and million things I saw and tons of inspiration to take home.

Here are some handpicked ones from the both Salone del Mobile and Fuorisaloni in Brera, Lambrate and Zona Tortona.

Marble was the biggest styling element at the this years fair. There were some pretty amazing stones to be admired.

There were some very inspiring new bathroom designs and styles like the Konstantin Grcic's VAI, project for Laufen, or Cui Collection by Prospero Pissolo for Valtana
